16.3 The Management Committee shall affiliate Endurance Rides provided the ride organizers meet the specific terms as determined by the association.

16.4 The Management Committee may withhold or withdraw affiliation of an Endurance Ride and shall be obliged to furnish reason for its decision.

17 Membership of Management Committee

17.1 The Management Committee of the Association shall be comprised of 4 executive officer members and up to a maximum of 15 committee members and with no less than 6 members completing a minimum of three endurance rides without disqualification and all of whom are members of the Association.

17.2 The four executive officers shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer who shall be elected by the members of the Association.

17.3 The 4 executive officers shall hold office for one year. The term of office for executive officers of the committee shall commence immediately after the close of the Annual General Meeting of the Association at which the member was elected and shall end at the close of the next Annual General Meeting of the Association after that at which the member was elected.

17.4 The remaining committee members shall hold office for two years. The term of office for members of the committee shall commence immediately after the close of the Annual General Meeting of the Association at which the member was elected and shall end at the close of the second Annual General Meeting of the Association after that at which the member was elected.

- 17.5 At each Annual General Meeting the following members of the Management Committee shall retire:
- a) all of the executive officers who shall be eligible upon nomination for re-election.
 - b) any member of the Management Committee who wishes to nominate for election as an executive officer
 - c) all members of the Management Committee who have completed the two year term for which they were appointed
 - d) any member of the Management Committee appointed by the Management Committee pursuant to Rule 20 of the Rules of the Association, but shall be eligible upon nomination for election.
 - e) any member of the Management Committee who wishes to nominate for election as a member of the IAC.
- 17.6 The election of members of the Management Committee shall take place in the following manner:
- a) any two members of the Association shall be at liberty to nominate any other member to serve as an executive officer or as a member of the Management Committee;
 - b) the nomination, which shall be in writing and signed by the member and his proposer and seconder, shall be lodged with the Secretary at least twenty-eight days before the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take place, and should include a resume of not more than 150 words;
 - c) the election of committee members for the following term will be conducted at the Annual General Meeting by a vote of the members present;
 - d) ballot papers shall be accepted up until 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Annual General Meeting and may be lodged by hand or by post to the Returning Officer of the Association; and
 - e) should, at the commencement of such meeting, there be an insufficient number of candidates nominated, those nominated shall be deemed elected and nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting to fill vacancies not filled in accordance with the preceding provisions of this rule.
 - f) in the event of an equality of votes for any two or more candidates for a position, then a separate secret ballot will be held by the members in attendance at the Annual General Meeting.
- 17.7 Any member of the Management Committee may resign from membership of the Management Committee at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary, but such resignation shall take effect at the time such notice is received by the Secretary unless a later date is specified in the notice when it shall take effect on that later date.

18 Secretary

18.1 It is the duty of the Secretary to keep minutes of:

- a) all appointments of executive officers and other members of the Committee;
- b) the names of members of the Committee present at a Committee meeting or a General meeting; and
- c) the decisions taken and business dealt with at Committee meetings and General meetings.

18.2 The Secretary shall ensure that the issues raised in debate on a motion put at a general meeting are reported to the members via the newsletter to enable postal voting on the following Motion on Notice for Voting.

18.3 The Secretary shall ensure that the minutes of proceedings at a meeting shall be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting or by the Chairperson of the next meeting.

18.4 The Secretary of the Association shall provide to the Secretary of the AERA a true copy of the minutes of the Management Committee meeting and any General Meeting within 28 days following any meeting of the Committee.

18.5 The Secretary shall ensure that notification of agenda items together with necessary postal voting forms are provided to ordinary members no less than 14 days prior to all general meetings. Re-nomination of honorary members will be included.

18.6 The Secretary shall endeavor to ensure that notification of agenda items is provided to members of the Management Committee no less than seven days prior to Management Committee meetings.

19 Treasurer

19.1 It is the duty of the Treasurer of the Association to ensure that:

- a) all money due to the Association is collected and received and that all payments authorized by the Association are made;
- b) correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the Association including full details of all receipts and expenditures connected with the activities of the Association;
- c) a true copy of the financial report of the Association for the immediate past financial year is provided to the Secretary of the AERA no later than 28 days after the close of the Annual General Meeting.

20 Casual Vacancies

- 20.1 The Management Committee shall have the power at any time to appoint any member of the Association to fill any casual vacancy on the Management Committee until the next Annual General Meeting.
- 20.2 The continuing members of the Management Committee may act notwithstanding any casual vacancy in the Management Committee, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to these Rules as the necessary quorum of the Management Committee, the continuing member or members may act for the purpose of increasing the number of members of the Management Committee to that number or of summoning a General meeting of the Association, but for no other purpose.

21 Removal of Committee Member

- 21.1 A member of the Management Committee may be removed by a 75% majority vote of other members of that Committee provided that such member of the Management Committee has been given 14 days advice of a notice for removal to be voted on at a Committee Meeting.
- 21.2 A member of the Management Committee shall be removed from the Committee if she or he fails to attend three consecutive meetings without sufficient reasons.
- 21.3 A member of the Management Committee removed under Clause 21.1 or 21.2 would have the right of appeal as stipulated in Clause 15.3 b) & c) and Clause 15.4 through 15.8.

22 Meetings of Management Committee

- 22.1 The Management Committee shall meet at least once every two calendar months to exercise its functions.
- 22.2 A special meeting of the Management Committee shall be convened by the President or by the Secretary on the requisition in writing signed by not less than one third of the members of the Management Committee. Such requisition shall clearly state the reasons the special meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.
- 22.3 At every meeting of the Management Committee the presence of one more than half the members elected and/or appointed to the Management Committee as at the close of the last Annual General Meeting of the members, rounded up to the next whole number, shall constitute a quorum.
- 22.4 Not less than fourteen days notice shall be given by the Secretary to members of the Management Committee of any special meeting of the Management Committee. Such notice shall clearly state the nature of the business to be discussed thereat.
- 22.5 The President will act as Chairperson unless the Management Committee members decide by a majority vote to appoint an alternative person from the Committee.

22.6 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of a Management Committee meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members of the Management Committee, shall lapse. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Management Committee may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall lapse.

22.7 Proxy voting shall be permitted at all State Management Committee meetings.

23 Delegation to Sub-Committees

23.1 The Management Committee may delegate any of its powers to a sub/committee of such members of the Association, or other persons, as the Management Committee thinks fit. Any sub/committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Management Committee.

23.2 A sub-committee may elect a Chairperson of its meetings. If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their numbers to be Chairperson of the Meeting.

23.3 A sub-committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and, in the case of an equality of votes, the question shall be deemed to be decided in the negative.

23.4 A sub-committee must report on its activities and decisions to each meeting of the Management Committee.

24 Voting and Decisions

24.1 The Management Committee may meet together and regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit, provided that questions arising at any meeting of the Management Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes of members present and, in the case of equality of votes, the question shall be deemed to be decided in the negative.

24.2 The Secretary shall cause full and accurate minutes of all questions, matters, resolutions and other proceedings of every Management Committee meeting to be recorded and available for inspection. For the purposes of ensuring the accuracy of the recording of such minutes, the minutes of every Management Committee meeting shall be signed by the Chairperson of that meeting or a member other than the Secretary of the Management Committee who was present at the meeting to which the minutes apply at the next succeeding Management Committee meeting.

24.3 A member of the Management Committee shall not vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract with the Association in which she/he is interested, or any matter arising there from, and if she/he does so vote such vote shall not be counted.

- 24.4 All acts done by any meeting of the Management Committee or of a sub-committee shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member of the Management Committee or person acting as aforesaid, or that the members of the Management Committee or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member of the Management Committee.
- 24.5 A resolution in writing forwarded to all members of the Management Committee for the time being entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Management Committee and signed by a majority of the members of the Management Committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Management Committee duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more members of the Management Committee.

25 Independent Appeals Committee

- 25.1 The IAC shall consist of 5 members of the Association elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Association from nominations lodged from the floor of the meeting. The 5 members elected shall hold office for a period of 2 years and the term of office shall end at the close of the second Annual General Meeting of the Association after that at which the member was elected.
- 25.2 When required to adjudicate 3 members shall be chosen by lottery by the Western Australian Management Committee.
- 25.3 A full attendance of 3 committee members will be required as a quorum.
- 25.4 Voting at IAC meetings shall be decided by a majority vote of the 3 elected members.
- 25.5 Members of the IAC shall disqualify themselves from acting in the event of a conflict of interest or personal Association relating to the issue to be resolved.
- 25.6 The IAC shall convene at the direction of the Western Australian Management Committee and/or the membership at a general meeting, and report their decisions to the Management Committee; such decisions shall be binding and not subject to appeal or alteration.
- 25.7 Members retiring after two years service are eligible for re-election upon nomination.
- 25.8 The State Management Committee shall have the power at any time to appoint a suitable member of the Association to fill any casual vacancy on the IAC until the next Annual General Meeting.
- 25.9 If for any reason the IAC is unwilling or unable to form a quorum to hear a disciplinary matter, the State Management Committee shall constitute itself as the IAC and perform all of the functions of the IAC and have all of the powers of the IAC.

26 Returning Officer

- 26.1 The Returning Officer shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Association from nominations taken from the floor of the meeting. The elected Returning Officer shall hold office for a period of two years and the term of office shall end at the close of the second Annual General Meeting of the Association after that at which the member was elected. The member is eligible for re-election upon nomination.
- 26.2 The Returning Officer will be instructed by the Management Committee as to the tasks and responsibilities related to the postal ballot for executive officers and other members of the Management Committee as well as 27.1.
